Dear Miss Stewart:

I sincerely thank you for your kind review of my little book and for tidings of your brother whom I knew well in the old lang syne of our student days.

As we grow old we cling all the more fondly to our old friends, & I'm always glad to hear from them.

I came to California from Havana Cuba in 1868. by way of the isthmus of Panama, instead of the Plains, though in my studies I have crossed the continent many times.

Should I find time to continue my autobiographical notes a good many volumes may be published.

With kindest regards for your brother
I am faithfully yrs John Muir
